6. Presentation: Central Okanagan Proposal for BC Integrated Youth Services Initiative

Shelagh Turner, Executive Director of the Canadian Mental Health Association (CMHA) Kelowna, and Mike Gawliuk, Director of Service Delivery and Program Innovation of the CMHA Kelowna, presented on a proposal they are preparing to participate in a 36-month province-wide initiative (BC-IYSI) to support youth and young adults aged 12-24 in the Central Okanagan. If successful, this initiative would provide easy access to integrated services including primary care, mental health, substance use, and social services for Central Okanagan children and families. The Canadian Mental Health Association Kelowna will prepare an Expression of Interest (EOI) submission by January 29, 2016. Up to three communities from each Health Authority that submit an EOI response will be selected to move to phase 2, which includes $5,000 for convening, and creation of a full proposal.

The Aboriginal Education Council supported the concept of a BC Integrated Youth Services Initiative in the Central Okanagan and will provide a Letter of Support for the concept.

ACTION ITEM: To write a Letter of Support for the concept of a BC Integrated Youth Services Initiative in the Central Okanagan. (Chris Derickson)

13. Preliminary Budget Discussions

Budget Update

The District Principal provided an update on the 2015/2016 school year budget. Since the positions for the Aboriginal Youth and Family Support Worker and Aboriginal Clinical Supervisor have not been filled, the savings have been used to increase tutorial support. The District Principal also explained the cost sharing with schools for cultural performances.

ONA Presentation to Regional Liberal Caucus

The Chairperson shared that the Assistant Superintendent, Board of Education Chair, and himself presented the Central Okanagan School District's focus on Aboriginal Education at the Chief Executive Council and Okanagan MLA Caucus Meeting on December 11, 2015. The MLAs encourages the presenters to consider providing a proposal to support unique educational programs/special projects for Aboriginal students.

Budget Discussion

The AEC decided to table the Budget Discussion to the February 18, 2016 AEC meeting and to schedule the meeting from 9:00 am – 3:00 pm. In order for staff to be prepared, Council members are to forward specific budget questions to the Assistant Superintendent's office. The AEC also agreed to bring their ideas with solutions to the table.

Updates

1. Round Table Discussions

Round Table Discussions occurred. Council members shared personal and organizational updates.

New Business – Continued

14. Ministry of Education Review of Enhancement Agreements

Dr. Karen Ragoonaden, University of British Columbia Okanagan, provided an overview of a BC Ministry of Education funded research study she is conducting regarding Aboriginal Education Enhancement Agreements. The research study aims to better understand the impact of Aboriginal Enhancement Agreements in BC with a particular focus on the history and current state of Enhancement Agreements in BC; the role they play in system change; any noted improvements in Aboriginal student performance; any successful innovative and interdisciplinary practices in BC schools; and, the school district-community relationships. The Research Team will use the following four methods to conduct their study: Qualitative Content Analysis, Focus Groups, Interviews, and a Survey. Dr. Ragoonaden is seeking voluntary participation in this research study and will randomly contact AEC members and community members to participate.
